COURSE DESCRIPTION AND TERMS OF RESERVATION

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Finnish Yachting and Boating Association authorised training includes courses at three levels:

Competent Crew course

The objective of this course is to train for readiness of keel boat crew with the knowledge and skills.

After the course they will have the capability to carry out all basic duties in boat. This includes steer a boat, adjust and handle the sails, and actively participate in everything what is needed during the sailing.

Entry level is swimming skill and, good health and 15 years of age. The course duration is at least four days and 32 hours (including theory). The course consists of theory training, which will be held as close to the practical course.

The course book is RYA Competent Crew (price 25e), which includes course fee.

At the end of the course participant will receive the International Sailing Logbook with course markings. The book is a boater's personal log book for records all boating, navigation training and sailing experience.

Day Skipper and Coastal Skipper courses

After Competent Crew course and having enough experience sailors have the opportunity to continue the training in Day Skipper course and Coastal Skipper course. These courses are suitable also for those sailors who have good sailing experience, but the goal is guided to strengthen their own areas of expertise. In other words, these courses can also come directly without passing through basic course. The primary objective of the courses is to train the boat skippers for cruising and sailing trips.

Objective of Day Skipper course is to achieve a readiness to skipper the boat in good conditions in the archipelago during the daytime. Aim of Coastal Skipper course is to achieve the capability to skipper the boat in moderate condition also under the restricted visibility and also at night.

All our Practical Day Skipper courses will take at least four days. On the same course is also Competent Crew level students who train the skills of crew members. One main focus of this course is to train effective and safe boat maneuvering in different conditions.

The course consists of theory training, which will be held as close to the practical course.

The course book is RYA: Day Skipper book, which includes course fee.
